

The Stapleford Messenger Marketplace

Terms and Conditions

- 1. No responsibility is taken for quality and safety of items offered. The responder to an advert should make their own enquiries, and items are taken as seen.*
- 2. The Stapleford Messenger ('The Messenger') is not a party to any contractual or other arrangement reached between advertisers and those who respond to them, including collection or delivery arrangements. By placing the advert the advertiser agrees to indemnify The Messenger against any claims which may be made against it as a result of the advert.*
- 3. The Messenger has the right to refuse an advert.*
- 4. The Messenger cannot guarantee when an advert will appear, as it depends on space.*
- 5. An advert can be sent in a maximum of twice.*
- 6. Only individuals can advertise. No businesses.*
- 7. Adverts can be for sale (limit £50), to give away, to lend (FOC), or offering help (FOC). Wanted adverts can also be accepted.*
- 8. No living creatures may be offered or asked for.*
- 9. Adverts should be 50 words maximum, with no pictures.*
- 10. Adverts should give a first name and phone number or email address.*
